

Lesson 5: Praying for Your One More

Before we speak to people about God, we should speak to _____ about _____.

Pray with a heart that desires their _____ (Romans 10:1).

Prayer helps align _____ with _____.

Sometimes prayer changes _____ and sometimes it changes _____.

How does praying for someone affect the way we view them?

Pray with _____, not discouragement (Luke 18:1-8).

Your prayers may be preparing the soil for a moment that _____.

What encourages you to keep praying for someone who seems uninterested?

Pray for opportunities to _____ (Colossians 4:2-3).

Evangelism opportunities are not always accidental. Sometimes they are _____.

What might an "open door" look like in everyday life?

Pray for _____ and _____ when the door opens (Colossians 4:4).

Remember: _____. We simply share the message.

How does prayer help us overcome our fears?

Pray _____ because God cares about your One More (1 Timothy 2:4)!

When you pray for your One More, you are praying in _____ with the heart of God.

You are not asking God to care; _____!

How does knowing God cares for their salvation affect your prayers?
How can we encourage each other to keep praying?